

Finding the Light in Yourself

By Angelo Toravella

Hurt
It's all you feel Vengeance with your heart
Can't help the presence of brokenness
But it is a fight that can be fought but battle hard to win a rivalry that stays to feel defeated not having a cure
the silence inside with nothing
But darkness
A fire inside that can't be put out but inside you feel that you can survive
You can prosper
You have to be aware of what is happening
To fight the battle that has to be fought together
And get help to fight
To feel found
To talk to someone
And have someone to fight the fight with Then to feel for the first time
Something bright
A light
a light so bright
To feel happiness
To feel for the first time that you can help others
To help them feel the same way
To find the light within the battle Always with the help of others
