The Office of Recipient Rights is pleased to announce the addition of a new team member.

Please join us in welcoming Cassaundra Taylor, who has accepted the position of Full-Time Recipient Rights Advisor. We are excited to have Cassaundra join the team and look forward to the valuable contributions she will bring to our department.

Wishing everyone
a safe and happy
holiday season!

ACCESS RIGHTS

For persons receiving services in a residential setting

FREEDOM OF MOVEMENT

MHC Section 740, 742, 744

Freedom of movement is a right, not a privilege. This right cannot be limited or restricted more than is necessary to provide mental health services to residents to prevent them from injuring themselves or others, or to prevent substantial property damage.

ENTERTAINMENT/NEWS

MHC Section 704; Administrative Rule 7139

Residents have the right to watch television, have a newspaper provided, buy magazines, and books of their own choice.

RELIGION

MHC Section 704

Residents have the right to practice their religion or faith. Residents cannot be forced to go to a religious event if they do not want to, nor can they be required to listen to or watch religious programs on radio or TV.

PERSONAL PROPERTY

MHC Section 728;
Administrative Rule 7009

Residents have the right to:

- Wear their own clothes and keep their own things.
- Have a reasonable amount of space to store their personal belongings.
- Not have their belongings searched unless this is part of their plan of service or unless there is a good reason; to watch if their belongings are searched; and to have the reason for the search written in their record.

TELEPHONE

MHC Section 726

Residents have the right to talk on the phone in private.

VISITORS

MHC Section 715, 726, 748;
Administrative Rule 7135

Residents have the right to see visitors of their choice.

MAIL

MHC Section 726

Residents have the right to receive and send mail without anyone else opening or reading it.

LIMITATIONS: Any limitations to these rights must be approved by the BTPRC and written in a resident's IPOS.

Joslyn Blann
