

WORKING WITH LGBTQ+ INDIVIDUALS

Open to CMH staff and Contract Agencies

Friday June 30th, 2023

9:00 AM - 11:00 AM

About this Presentation:

This training will assist clinicians and other professionals in working more effectively with LGBTQ+ individuals of all ages. This presentation will provide resources, explore LGBTQ+ identities, common terminology used by the LGBTQ+ community and allies, recent news related to LGBTQ+ identity, and the intersection of identity and mental health. Attendees will be provided an introduction to affirming care for the LGBTQ+ community, what affirming care is, how to be affirming, and why affirmation matters.

Presented by St. Clair County CMH staff Shannon Conover LMSW and Haylee McKenzie LLMSW

2.0 Social Work CEs Credit Offered
2.0 Children's Hours Offered (CMH staff)

Presentation is offered face to face in the CMH Auditorium or virtual via Lifesize.
