The Port Huron Odyssey House Outpatient program offers a second chance for individuals struggling with a substance use disorder. Individuals learn highly effective techniques that are instrumental in living a recovery-based lifestyle.

Psychiatric consults and medication reviews are available by referral for those with co-occurring mental health disorders.

We also provide coordination with the legal system through drug testing and progress evaluations, assistance in accessing housing that includes Rubicon Recovery Housing and long term community based services for pregnant and post-partum women.

Call today to discover which of our services is the best route for your journey of self-discovery.
